The Ramble Hotel

The design here will make you feel right at home, with comfy beds, factory paned windows, wide-plank hickory flooring, antique Persian rugs, and perfectly-curated mini-bars outfitted with local Colorado snacks and libations. Not that you'll be spending too much time in your room—mixology icon Death & Co. opened up their first location outside of Manhattan in the Ramble's lobby, offering not only their brilliant cocktails, but also a full-fledged restaurant serving equally inventive seasonal, local cuisine.
